Discuse and Death a their way into many a household that ole ted from their inroads by the nedictive and safeguard of

M DI 500 505 ansed Grom

do out

Cancer of the Tongue. in was incessant, causing loss ing areat nervous prostration conders and centered thace e annuet losing the use of it, a at the two, life had grow use of a half dozen small, titl's Specific, she was entire. ed to benith. This was three attend Skin Diseases mailed free

casily taken by child-

at any DRUGSTORE JON WILL BE Convinced ONE REMEDY FOR

Burglary at Ladonia. ondence of the Gazette.

lawer but no casa. Injection Z cures in 2 to 6 days Injection Z will not cause stricture. Injection Z, safest and most reliable. Injection Z, full and complete. Injection Z at all first-class druggists.

FORT WORTH.

Handsome Compliments From the Newspapers of Texas to the Queen City of the Lone Star State.

Improved On"-What the Editors Think were royally entertained while in Fort we venture to say.

HUNTING FOR GAS. San Antonio Ligat: The citizens of Fort Worth are perfecting a company for 'he purpose of prospecting and boring for gas. The average citizen possesses enough of the article to illuminate Dallas, and the never censing blow and gas of its citizens, has a good deal to do with the continual boom and progress of the town. The Fort Worth people not only gas and blow, but back it with their money, and from a railroad down to collar manufac-

CAN'T BE IMPROVED ON.

the Fort's hospitality.

WONDERFUL GROWTH. reached there, and her population was a with three more located. The city is growing rapidly, and will soon be shead

PLUCK AND ENTERPRISE. Arlington News: For: Worth has roved herself a city of pluck and entertrise in her cordial hospitality extended to the Texas journalists the past week. The "Panther City" will not be forgotten by the press of the state.

TOWN AND PAPER. Gazette published a special edition last do wish the fever was more contagious, and that it would travel down this way.

THE GRANDEST RECEPTION. Denton Monitor: The entertainment Texas. It was the grandest reception which the editors ever before received in the state. GREAT IS FORT WORTH.

be greatly increased soon. The Texas Fort Worth. It was generally agreed to this meeting be then there, no doubt they | velopment manifested. Great is Fort and such is Fort Worth. P. S .- We have said nothing of the "on to" racket in the above.

will be astonished at the growth and de-tel accommodations equal to any in the questioned that the enterprising and ton beef eater. state were furnished immediately on ar- progressive population of Fort Worth is rival, and the unkinited hospitalities of keenly slive to the value of printer's ink, the city tendered most graciously.

giant of North Texas.

adventure.

its success could be given.

as the gay crowd went whirling away across the Trinity, another syndicate has the side of her tongar near to her laurels. The energy and enterto her laurels. The energy and enter- the inspiring echoes from the mountains, acre, and is preparing to build a city. prise of THE GAZETTE is indeed com- ye scribe returned home, glad to have Real estate in the present business and met the members of the press and the residence portion of the city has likewise citizens of Fort Worth.

WHERE THE PANTHER LAID DOWN.

Overton Sharp-Shooter: Last week roads are doing it; and the hope of suswe visited this beautiful, thriving, hospi- taining the prosperous conditions has the table little city and when we say beauti- actual and living basis of location, freeful, thriving and hospitable, we mean dom from competition west, north and all that we say. For it stands upon a southwest-a territory sufficient to mainhigh bluff overlooking the Trinity river, tain a city of half a million inhabitants, perity of the town has have near 200 artesian wells, which and the Evening Mail. finest and most commodious hotels to be | that. found in America. They have many miles The invitation of the Guif, Colorado of most beautiful Macadamized streets, and Santa Fe Railway authorities to ride and that is the reason why Fort Worth over all. His attentions to his guests were mounted on a new train of the pas-

the balance of our life and not get tired, only gentlemen in charge of its trains. shook himself, and Peter Smith came and is fairly occupied.

complete establishment of the kind in the tesies and hospitalities of the social virsouth or west. Here the sight-seers took | tues, and extended to their guests royal a peep through a magnificent building, greeting and princely entertainment, is to with three stories and basement, and a convey but a meager conception of their storage capacity of 110,000 square feet. methods and their manners, their kindly From basement to dome it was stocked treatment and their exuberant overflow with everything that belongs to a great of generous heart gifts. Their attentions wholesale grocery business, and everything from the first warm, vigorous welcoming moved on with perfect system. Two or grip at the depot to the last good-bye, three elevators transported their cargoes | were attuned and played upon the highof living freight from floor to floor, as est and richest key, and if any guest was the delighted visitors were endeavoring neglected it was his or her own fault. to make an occular diagnosis of the stu- On this line they did their whole duty, and pendous building. From here the literary | when the time came to exhibit the maglegion proceeded to the factory just in the | nificence of their creation, they proved Bennett New Era: The quill drivers rear of the store and witnessed the pro- themselves adepts in mingling business cess of manufacturing baking powders, with pleasure. In force and with nume-Worth. Not one of them will have naught | caudy, chewing gum, vinegar and the cele. | rous splendid private teams and vehicles but a kind word for the Fort and her brated Sultan reasted coffee. After feasting they assumed control of the entire whole-souled citizens ever in the future, on candy and the indispensable gum, the "gang," seized the reins and wheeled a ions of the hour were taken in carriages hundred or more-quill drivers away over by the representative men and driven their smoothly paved streets, first to the over the city, visiting the refrigerator, largest and best appointed grocery house waterworks, public school buildings and west of the Mississippi, where the plain, other places of interest in the young unostentations, courteous proprietor, Joseph H. Brown, gave them polite atten-Fort Worth has more miles of paved tion, carried them through his mammoth streets, more miles of water mains, and emporium and showed them a world of more miles of street car lines than we had business in action. The drive thence any idea of, and the elements of pros. was west, northeast, south and centralperity are numerous on every hand. Five through and over graveled and macadamspleudid public school buildings, a large | 12ed and paved streets till the number of fine churches of nearly every last prominent object of interest had denomination, three first-class hotels and been seen and the last industry tanever allow a good thing to pass them by, a number of smaller ones, a commodious ken in. Passing by the long list of coopera house complete in its appointments, lossal wholesale and palatial retail dry and an imposing clubhouse nearing com- goods and clothing houses, the immense pletion, together with many other ele- grocery establishments, the hardware and ments of modern advancement, are among implement wholesalers, the furniture Texarkana Times: No city in Texas the numerous creations of the city's dealers and the multitude of superb mercan ever treat the press fraternity more handiwork that stand as living monu- cantile places that line the beautiful royally than they were treated in Fort ments of the enterprise of Fort Worth. streets, what most attracted and amazed Worth a few days since. It would be an | Captain Paddock tendered the associa- the bewildered visitors were the elegant utter impossibility to improve on the tion the courtesles of his road, the Fort and cost y residences all along the exout to the terminus, a distance of thirtysix miles. His kindness was accepted by three years ago could have been purthree years ago could have been pur-Worth and Rio Grande, for an excursion tended ride, and the tremendous en-Duck Creek News: The growth of Fort about seventy-five of the crew, and a chased for $12 to $25 per acre have, Worth within the past eleven years, as pleasant time it was. Captain Paddock within the last four or six months, been shown by the manmooth extra edition of made a rough-and-ready speech and sold for $300 to $500 per acre, and are LOT NO. 3-This lot contains a selection of some exquis-THE GAZETTE last week, is indeed won- Henry Furman gave his experience in now held at $500 to $800 per acre. New derful, and without parallel in the history journalism, which was brief but full of burban towns are in process of rising up burban towns are in process of rising up Of the hop at the Pavilion it is enough all around the main city. Weatherford little over 1000. In 1887 her population to say that it was under the suspices of street is being extended to a length of building towns at either end. North, As the gay crowd went whirling away across the Trinity, another syndicate has Corsicana Observer: The Fort Worth and as beautiful a situation as nature and plenty of as good water as ever flowed ever formed. The town is nicely laid from the fountains of the earth.

boomed from one to four hundred per cent, and holders don't care to sell a any price. Do you ask the cause of this Aladdin like increase in values? Rail-

kept south, southwest and west, and another pace with the railroad building, line to the northwest is projected, and no Ten years ago they had a population of | man in the city doubts its early construcperhaps 2000 all told, now they claim to tion. What else? A live, active, enerhave $0,000, and we are certain that it is getic, enterprising, harmonious, deternot less than 25,000. This shows that mined population, headed by Peter population has kept pace with the public Smith, Joe Brown, Van Zandt, Chase, improvements. They have six national Ellis, Lloyd, Brittain, Evans, Huffman banks with a capital of $2,000,000. They and many others, including THE GAZETTE furnish abundance of the finest water to | The meeting of the press was harmonibe found on the globe. They have six- ous, pleasant and beneficial to the craft. teen miles of street railway, and the Not a circumstance occurred to mar the stock is said to be at a premium of 100 charm or reflect the slightest discredit on per cent. They have the flacst and largest the guild of a single member. Not store house in the state of Texas. They glass of wine or a drop of red lighter wa have many magnificent residences that served anywhere, but everything ele would attract attention in any city in the was as free as the artesian water, and United States. They have two of the cordiality of the people was freer than

which are as smooth and hard as solid over their new extension to Washita stone. They have many miles of beauti- canyon, in the Chickasaw nation, was ful patent stone pavement, and are grow- promptly and gladly accepted, and at 7 ing thousands upon thousands of beautiful a. m. Thursday, about 100 boarded two shade trees. Being situated on a high splendid new coaches, and sped away bluff they have a most perfect system of northward to their destination. Engine They have all these things at Fort handled by Mr. J. Martin, one of the Worth besides many other things. They most skillful and gentlemanly engineers have THE GAZETTE, the best daily news- in the company's service. Mr. J. N. Cole paper published in the state of Texas, bad charge as conductor, and by his One other thing they have there that no pleasant demeanor and affable manner other town or city in Texas or anywhere | won the respect and kindly mention of else has got, in fact no other town can all on board. Mr. J. A. Tillman, courknow Peter, we followed him in the great his guests, was master of the train and war for four years. He was one of us; he was | nobly demonstrated his figness for the aved and respected by all his men; he delicate and responsible duties imposed the war was over he turned his attention | agent and commercial superintendent at | Fort Worth and Rio Grande Railroad to peaceful pursuits, and he has managed Fort Worth, one of the most capable, took charge of the faber brigade. He we fully believe that we could live there sought to secure the best, and will have

We all decided that we would go back to The new road is superior to any new made by Mr. Paddock, Henry Furman Fort Worth in 1892, and see what im- road the writer ever traveled over. It is and others. The return trip was made provements could be made in five years. | first-class in every particular, and was | late in the evening, and the whole crowd If the present rate is kept up until that built for a thirty-five mile schedule from said that Paddock and his road were mastime Fort Worth will be second only to the first trip over it. From Fort Worth ters of the situation. Chicago, as a western metropolis. We to Gainesville, sixty-five miles, it runs

Egain, and should any of those present at river, and he was drowned, and so that ful beyond description, and the soil is as of the dance, while the sober, staid and was the last of the panther. But the place rich as the delta of the Nile. Red river plous editors ate ice cream, cakes and where the panther laid down is still there, marks a change in the color, character other good things, which were provided The distance from the river to Washita generous city and wheel toward Fort Meridian Citizen: The meeting of the canyon is sixty miles, varied with wood. Worth. The delay necessitated an inlitors, proprietors and publishers of land and prairie, and every acre equal to crease of speed, and we were whirled Texas at Fort Worth last week practically the best lands on the continent for agri- along the track at lightning speed Itasca Alliance Mail: It would be a and impressively demonstrated the culture. Along the border there were until the Fort was reached, just as the difficult matter to find a people who are measure of esteem in which the press is fields of corn and other evidences of civ- great king of day was sinking in the better skilled in the art of entertaining held by the people as the supreme factor lization and thrift, but for fifty miles no western deep blue renith, and the golden than the citizens of Fort Worth, and cer- in building cities and industries, and in sign of habitation, except one small log rays were gilding the spires of the great Rates, $2.50 per day. tainly none could be more cordial in wel- promoting, conserving and protecting the cabin, was visible. There were thou- city, where once the parther lay down in coming their guests than this city was in liberties of the people and the best receiving the members of the press. Ho- interests of mankind. It should not be ever, and they were fat enough for a Bos- of prey, "the Chicago of Texas" must

TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION. nor is there reason to doubt that its | Corsicana Observer: The Texas Press | with thy charms; the moments have At the appointed hour when the frater- intelligence is above the standard of just Association met in Fort Worth on May flown but too fast, and duty calls to the nity met at the opera house, which had appreciation of the power of the press to 24. The enterprising people of the Fort routine of the sanctum at home. Friday been kindly prepared for them, the beau- successfully, and safely handle the social, had made elaborate preparations to enter- morning, lucky day as any other, we bid been kindly prepared for them, the beauties of artistic decoration were as forcibly set forth as the warmth-of the reception had been. The attractive stage decorations in evergreens, lovely fester.

The store of t Labonia, Tex., June 2.—The store of wrought, souvenirs of fraternal greeting, well regulated press; and it is not strange that she should rejoice in the opportunity to acknowledge that indebtlast night. One hole was drilled into the merous designs, charming, artistic and opportunity to acknowledge that indebtsife, but no further damage was done to unique, wrought of the flora and fauna of the control of the co They carried off the money the invigorating altitude where the pan- welcome to the toilers of the sanctum, come written in big letters. Above the nature's own true laxative. It is the BEWARE OF F the invigorating altitude where the panther sniffed the healthy breeze and then took a rest.

To say that the good people of Fort the wholesale grocery store of the wholesale grocery store of the wholesale grocery store of the sanctum, and formally paying tribute to the magic stage in the opera house was a mammoth took a rest.

United States flag with welcome worked in letters of evergreens. It was indeed a welcome that came from the hearts of a great people.

 After the first day's work ceased, carriages were in wait-lived by hing at the opera house was a mammoth took a rest.

United States flag with welcome worked in letters of evergreens. It was indeed a welcome that came from the hearts of a great people.

 After the first day's work ceased, carriages were in wait-lived by hing at the opera house was a mammoth took a rest.

 After the first day's work ceased, carriages were in wait-lived by hing at the opera house was a mammoth took a rest.

 After the first day's work ceased, carriages were in wait-lived by hing at the opera house was a mammoth took a rest.

 After the first day's work ceased, carriages were in wait-lived by hing at the opera house was a mammoth took a rest.

 After the first day's work ceased, carriages were in wait-lived by hing at the opera house was a mammoth took a rest.

 After the first day's work ceased, carriages were in wait-lived by hing at the opera house was a mammoth took a rest.

 After the first day's work ceased, carriages were in wait-lived by hing at the opera house was a mammoth took a rest.

 After the first day's work ceased, carriages were in wait-lived by hing at the opera house was a mammoth took a rest.

 After the first day at the opera house was a mammoth took a rest.

 After the first day at the opera house was a mammoth took a rest.

 After the first day at the opera house was a mammoth took at the opera house was a mammoth Joseph H. Brown, the largest and most Worth are well up in the amenities, cour- ing to take the egitors to any place of in- Volgt, druggists, Fort Worth.

SANGER BROS. DALLAS - - -

Our recent heavy sales in Embroidery compelled us to go into the market for the purpose of replenishing stock. Regular lines being badly broken we found we could get great advantages by closing ends, of importers' stocks. It is needless to add that we did so, and for this week will place upon our counters A CHOICE of nearly 2000 Pieces!

From narrowest widths to 45-inch Flounces, at the following unheard of low prices. To avoid remnants, and for the further purpose of serving customers with dispatch, all advertised Embroideries will be sold in 4 1-2 yard strips only.

LOT NO. |- In this lot we will offer a choice of a large large number of patterns at 15c for a strip of 44 yards that are worth from 50 to 74: a yard.

yard, for 25c a strip of 4½ yards.

ite patterns in Swiss and Cambric, actual value 122c to 15c a yard. Our price for strip of 44 yards 35c.

is 30,000, and she has seven railroads, The Gazette. No better evidence of seven miles and monied syndicates are LOT NO. 4-At 45c per strip of 44 yards. This lot is composed of Cambric, Swiss and Nainsook. Any pattern among them would be cheap at 18c a yard.

LOT NO. 5-Another choice lot of Swiss Cambrid and Nainsook Embroidery at 55c per s up of 42 yards. Nobody can sell as good for 20c a yard at regular sale.

LOT NO. 6-Twenty-five cents a yard is a popular price for Embroiders, and we usually such abelient value at that price. This lot is composed of just such goods at 65c per strip of 14 yards.

LOT NO. 7-At 75c for a strip of 44 yards, the value of which compares favorably with all other lots.

LOT NO. 8-Is composed of Nainsook, Swiss and Cambric Embroidery in exquisite patterns, in the and heavy work, none of which are worth less than 35c per yard. The sale price is see for a strip of to vards.

Lot No. 9. In such a line of ATTRACTIONS it is hard to make one rival another, yet we confidently expect that this lot of 44 yard strips at $1 00 a strip, will be the most popular.

Flouncings. 24-inch Swiss Flouncings a 65c a yard. Cost more to import,

36-inch Swiss Flouncings 95c a yard, worth $1.35 45 inch Swiss Flounces, at $1.85, worth $2.00 36-inch Swis- Flouncings, 81.15 a yard, worth 81.65 45 mch Swiss Floundings, St 15 a yard, worth $1.65 45-inch Swiss Flouncings, $1.25 a yard, worth $1.75

A Fact Worthy of Notice. The season is sufficiently advanced for us to see just where surplus stock exists. Whenever found prices are cut regardless of cost. These cuts are being made daily.

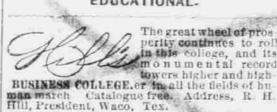

We cannot describe the patterns of any of these advertised goods, but we can garrantee that all the lovers of the Orders Filled Same Day as Received, and if amounting to $2.00 or over, will be forwarded by Express, pre-pald, to any point in Texas.

Sanger Brothers,

EDUCATIONAL.

ful in Embroidery will be pleased at our display.

hospital of the Missouri Pacific, rose from a private to a colonel. When apon him, Mr. J. J. Mulane, passenger Hon, B. B. Paddock, president of the to endear himself to his fellow-townsmen, courteous and reliable railroad men in first mounted the boys on street cars that the same as he did to his fellow-soldiers, the south, was also aboard, and captain wheeled them to the depot, where they has got so many large hearted generous were kindly, assiduous and patient, and senger coaches on his new road for a ride people. They all try to be like Peter be got close to their hearts. The com- to the terminus. The road is new, but pany is fortunate in having four such offi- in splendid trim; it was thirty-six miles cers in its employ, but the same, prob. to the terminus on the bluft overlooking and we never got tired. We could spend ably, might be said of every crew the the Brezos, where a big iron bridge sixtya mouth there and not get tired, to fact, Santa Fe sends out, for it has always five feet up in the blue other is to be looked carefully for the place where the | through the high, rolling, rich prairies of | ence was ushered into carriages and street panther laid down, thinking that possibly Tarrant, Wise and Cocke, every part of cars and taken to the pavilion at the fair by the aid of the electric lights, we might | which is cultivable and highly productive. | grounds, where a complimentary hop had find a few hairs in the old lair, but we The character of the lands from Gaines- been arranged by the Fort Worth Gafailed to find it. The panther got up and ville to Red river, six miles, is the same, zerre to the Texas press. The young editors and the elite of Fort Worth hold the session of 1892 in that place along and kicked him into the Trinity The country in the Territory is beauti- wheeled and whirled in the giddy mazes and depth of the soil, and there is much in abundance. * * * Time was more and larger timber north of the river. | precious, and we had to bid adieu to the take thy place-and it was done.

The three days' stay within thy gates has held us spell bound and fascinated

H. N. CONNER & CO., Booksellers & Stationers, Crane's Linen Box Paper. Base Balls, Croquet, etc.

207 Houston St., Fort Worth Tex.

CORRUGATED IRON

H. W. HARRY & BRO., 707 Main Street

We also carry in stock 27 B Iron, Tin Plate, Solder and Galvanized Iron, which we offer the trade at lowest market prices. CASEY & SWASEY, Wholesale Whisky Merchants. WINES, LIQUORS and CIGARS.

Sole Agents for Schlitt's Celebrated Bottled Beer, of Milwankee Bottling, and Wm. J. Le. Houston, corner Third Street, Fort Worth, Tex.

HOTEL PICKWICK,

Corner Fourth and Main Streets, FORT WORTH, TEX.

W. E. KENNEDY, Manager, DOUCLAS APIUM HABI

is Show, unless name, warrantee are stamped on bottom of each , DOUGLAS, Prockton, Mass,

FOR SALE BY

S. M. F. Y. 208 Main Stree

Win, Radam's Patent Process for Preserving Pershable Goods is the most terfect process on earth. It kills the fargus, or accuming the artholes treated, and termentation is stooped. Any quantity of the art had can be treated at one time. Farences September 25. on. Sand for circulars to Wm. Ludam, CAMERON & TATUM.

Lumber and All Kinds of Build-Ing Material.

FORT WORTH, TEXAS.